"Deadwood Bill," as Played in Bodie.

From the N. Y. Sun.

The heroic prevails in the drama of the west, even among amateurs, and what is lost in style is made up in action. On the 10th of this month the kitchen of the bon ton lodging house in Bodie, Cal., witnessed an amateur performance of thrilling interest. There was a critical audience present when the curtain, a horse blanket, was drawn aside. The piece was "Deadwood Bill," or, the Boiling Water-spout of the Rocky Mountains, and it opened with a bloody fight between Bill and Pete Dickson, the terror from Tar Flat, for the possession of a lovely maiden, who was seated in a stage coach personated by a dry goods box. The fight was long and desperate, and brought into play all the knives and pistols the actors could borrow. Of course Bill whipped. There were nine murders in the first act, and in the second four stages were robbed and a band of Indians routed. The piece was a great success.

A Pair of English Lovers.

Once upon a time, says a writer in the Poll Mail Gazette, a young Englishman of good birth and connections was rewarded by the attentions of a very pretty girl. After they had mutually gone through such preliminaries of courtship as are to be performed by willing minds at a distance, they ultimately had speech of each other. Then said the young lady, who was tall and upright as a wand, "I generally come here about half-past 1 in the afternoon." Having thus spoken, she looked down with unconscious grace and wrote upon the ground with her umbrella, for the weather was uncertain, and though in love she was not without forethought. "Hang it! that is unlucky," replied the young gentleman of good birth and valuable connections; "we lunch at 1 o'clock." Of this brief episode in the career of two British lovers the moral is that neither of them would sacrifice their convenience or regular habits to the vanities of amatory discourse.

An Exciting Chase.

There is a long grade on the Terre Haute and Logansport Railroad, in Indiana. A heavily loaded freight car broke loose from a train and started down this incline. It gained a frightful rate of speed, and was going in the direction from which a fast passenger train was soon to come. A dreadful collision was thus imminent. A locomotive was quickly sent in pursuit of the runaway. The chase was most exciting. The engineer, by forcing a speed of sixty miles an hour, finally overtook the freight car, fastened to it, and drew it in a reverse direction, just in time to prevent a disaster.

A Startled Deacon.

The Rev. Mr. A. was more prominent in his day for the brilliancy of his imagination than for the force of his logic. At one time he was preaching on the "Ministry of Angels," and in the peroration he suddenly observed: "I hear a whisper!" The change of tone startled the deacon, who sat below, from a drowsy mood, and springing to his feet, he spoke: "I guess it is the boys in the gallery."

The Great Desideratum found at last. Castor oil made pleasant. Parry's palatable CASTOR OIL is equal in medicinal activity to the ordinary unprepared Castor Oil, but has a pleasant taste in place of a nauseous taste. It is easily taken and retained by the stomach, even of delicate persons. Children take it readily and make no fuss about it. Osburn & Shoemaker, Agents for Washoe County. apr17

SATURDAY JUNE 5, 1880
THE PLUMED KNIGHT'S CHANCES.

The Blaine papers feel encouraged. They believe their favorite will get in after all. Four years ago he received the votes of Colorado, Delaware, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, Oregon, Wisconsin, Arizona, Dakota, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Utah and Washington, on the first ballot. This year he will receive the solid votes of Nevada, California, Delaware, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode Island, West Virginia and six of the Territories. He loses Minnesota and Wisconsin and gains Nevada, New Hampshire, Michigan, and California. In 1876 he started in with 285 and ran them up to 351 on the seventh ballot. He cannot count this year on over 300, if he gets that many, and owing to the intense bitterness of the fight, his chances are no better, if as good, as they were four years ago. We can safely predict, as we have for the past six months, that neither Grant nor Blaine will be the man.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"Tobacco costs the people of the United States more than bread." This statement seems startling at first sight, but it has no great significance, after all. Suppose now we say (what is probably true) that butter costs more than bread, or that boots cost more than bread—is there anything very alarming about that?

The preachers who pray that God may direct the choice of a Presidential nominee at Chicago should remember that the Democrats will soon hold a Convention. Do they think that God will provide over both Conventions, or over the Republicans only? Perhaps Republican ministers believe that the Devil will provide over the Democratic deliberations at Cincinnati.

Dr. Graff, contributor to "Afield Afloat," makes a great fuss over the taking of a "fifteen-inch" trout. Fifteen inches! A Triton of the minnows. The Truckee river fisherman thinks a fifteen pound trout, nothing to brag about. Come out here, Doctor, and we'll show you fish for men to play with.

A Nevada City Coroner's jury, on the body of a woman who had died from the effects of a surgical operation, brought in a verdict in which they "exonerated the physicians from all blame, but would request them hereafter to use more care in operating on patients."

A girl away down South ran a needle into her leg by accident. It traveled all over her body, coming out at the neck. The Sacramento Bee has the impudence to head its account of the circumstance: "Pleasant Trip by a Needle."

The Silver State urges that the delegates to the recent Democratic State Convention at Winnemucca found there "the best whiskey in Nevada." No one doubts that if the whiskey was there the Democrats found it.

Carson is to have an archery club. None but long bows of the toughest and most elastic fibre will be used. Sam Davis is to be President.

J. C. Johnson, formerly of the San Jose Mercury, is to be city editor of the Carson Times, the Tribune says.

The proceedings of the Chicago Convention must be for the "dark horse."

Grant is laid up in the country, suffering from chills.

Good feed all over Nevada this season.

The clay wall on the north side of the Jones & Kinkaid was cut through this week in the 300 level and a body of good looking brown ore 12 to 18 feet wide discovered. It is much better than that sent to Gold Hill and will probably go about $100. Jones will be in this evening.

An attempt at rape was made by one Ferguson upon the daughter of Mr. Kierman at Meadow Valley Wash, Nev., the other day. The rape being discovered by Mrs. K., jumped on a mail horse kept at the station. He has since been arrested in Fresno and will be brought back to Pioche.

They sell large quantities of it and say it supercedes all others. Decay of the Teeth
Arises from various causes, but principally it may be attributed to early neglect or the indiscriminate use of tooth powders and pastes, which give a momentary whiteness to the teeth while they corrode the enamel. The timely use of that delicate aromatic tooth-wash, FRAGRANT SOZODONT, will speedily arrest the progress of decay, harden the gums, and impart a delightful fragrance to the breath. It removes those ravages which people sustain in their teeth from the use of sweet and acid articles.
